Pikes Peak Pride is thrilled to announce its annual weekend celebration of love, identity, and community, returning to downtown Colorado Springs on Saturday, June 14 and Sunday, June 15, 2025. This two-day, family-friendly festival invites everyone to show their Pride, support the LGBTQIA+ community, and take part in the largest queer celebration in Southern Colorado.

Festivities will center around Alamo Square Park and the Colorado Springs Pioneers Museum, featuring live entertainment, performances, community resources, Purple Mountain Recovery Sober Garden, local food trucks, a vendor marketplace, Rainbow Youth Square, and much more.

The Pikes Peak Pride Parade, a vibrant and powerful show of visibility, kicks off Sunday, June 15 at 11 AM down Colorado Ave at Cimino Dr to Tejon Street and is free for all to attend.

2025 signifies 35 years of Pride in Colorado Springs. This year's celebration is all about rising together, louder, prouder, and more united than ever.
