Pikes Peak Pride Parade Returns to Downtown Colorado Springs on June 15th

The Pikes Peak Pride Parade returns to the heart of downtown Colorado Springs on Sunday, June 15, 2025, at 11 AM, promising a vibrant, joyful, and empowering celebration of visibility, identity, and love.

The parade kicks off at Cimino Drive and Colorado Avenue, winding its way down Tejon Street and culminating near the Colorado Springs Pioneers Museum, where the Pikes Peak Pride Festival continues in full swing. The parade is free and open to the public, welcoming all who wish to stand in solidarity with the LGBTQIA+ community.

Pride in Colorado Springs has grown into Southern Colorado's largest queer celebration. This year's theme, "Pride for All," highlights the power of unity and the ongoing movement toward love, liberation, and community connection.

Parade-goers can expect colorful floats, marching bands, community groups, drag performers, and more, making this event one of the most vibrant spectacles of the summer. The parade is a key part of the Pikes Peak Pride Festival, held June 14–15, featuring live entertainment, vendors, food trucks, a sober garden, family activities, and more at Alamo Square Park and the Pioneers Museum.

Pikes Peak Pride is more than a weekend, it's a movement. We're proud to support our community year-round with inclusive programming, outreach, and celebration.

Media inquiries and press kits are available upon request.

About Pikes Peak Pride:

Pikes Peak Pride is a celebration of the LGBTQIA+ community in Colorado Springs and the greater Pikes Peak region. Through advocacy, education, and visibility, Pikes Peak Pride uplifts voices, connects communities, and promotes equality for all.
